1. Jesus saw the Eucharist as a participation in his death but also in what?
2. From the heavenly thrones Jesus could do what?
3. Did the disciples on the Road to Emmaus simply not recognize that Jesus was with them? What does St. Luke say?
4. Why was the "breaking of the Bread" so important in the Emmaus story?
5. The "Breaking of the Bread" on the road to Emmaus was, actually the first what after the Resurrection?

A new book study begins in May, "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary" by Brant Pitre. Books are available (with a donation) in the Faith Formation office.
